2020 - Plaintiff's Lawyer of the Year Award

The law firm of Reinig, Barber & Henry, PLLC is pleased to announce the selection of Levi F. Barber as 'Plaintiff's Lawyer of the Year' for 2020 by the Washington Defense Trial Lawyers Association.

Levi graduated from Pasco High School in 1999 and from Brigham Young University with a B.A. in Russian Studies in 2004. He graduated from Arizona State University's Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law in 2007.

Levi and his wife, Heather, have four children. Levi and Heather met when they were assigned seats next to each other on an airplane ride to Washington State, during a Christmas break from BYU.

Levi is a partner in the law firm of Reinig, Barber & Henry, PLLC in Kennewick, Washington. His areas of practice include Plaintiffs' representation in automobile and trucking accidents, wrongful death, birth trauma, nursing home neglect, and general personal injury.
